INTRODUCTION

This booklet has been written to give guidance to Lodges on the qualities required in their Treasurer and to Lodge Treasurers on their duties.

Guidance has been sought on many occasions by Brethren elected to the office of Treasurer who are not trained Accountants as to the best method of recording the financial transactions of a Lodge and the form and content of Lodge accounts. This booklet attempts to deal with these questions by the inclusion of examples of a Treasurer's cash book, budget statement and accounts in a simple format.

Examples of the Treasurer's accounts are provided in simple format which comply with the Book of Constitutions and Regulations.

A Treasurer with financial training will probably wish to prepare his financial statements on an accruals basis. However this paper will draw his attention to the requirements of Grand Lodge of Mark Master Masons with regard to Lodge accounts.

The Treasurer's duties in the Book of Constitutions and Regulations are set out in full.

This paper has equal application to the Treasurer of a Lodge of Mark Master Masons or a Lodge of Royal Ark Mariners.

THE QUALITIES OF THE LODGE TREASURER

- He is respected and trusted by and has the complete confidence of the Lodge.
- He is usually, but not necessarily, a Past Master.
- He need not be a trained accountant.
- It is desirable for him to be numerate, literate and articulate.
- He should be able to attend all or most meetings of the Lodge.
- It is desirable but not necessary for him to have IT skills and access to a computer and printer.

The Treasurer is elected by the members of the Lodge and not appointed by the Worshipful Master. He should act in the best interests of the members of the Lodge at all times and in accordance with the Book of Constitutions and Regulations and the Lodge by-laws.

THE DUTIES OF A LODGE TREASURER

- To prepare budgets for the income and expenditure of the Lodge and advise on annual subscriptions, initiation and joining fees and dining charges.
- To open and operate a bank account in the name of the Lodge. All cheques must bear the signature of the Treasurer and (unless the Lodge resolves to the contrary) at least one other member authorised by the Lodge.
- To maintain an inventory of the possessions of the Lodge.
- To deposit all monies due to or held for the Lodge into the bank account.
- To make such payments as are duly authorised, or have been sanctioned by the Lodge.
- To enter a complete record of all monies passing through his hands in the proper books of account which shall be the property of the Lodge.
- To prepare a statement of accounts annually, at a date to be determined by the members, which statement shall be verified and audited by a Committee of members of the Lodge annually elected for that purpose.
- To see that copies of the accounts are sent to all members with the summons convening the meeting at which they are to be considered.

- To produce the books of account in open Lodge at such meeting, and on any other occasion when required by resolution of the Lodge.
- The same procedure of annual accounts, audit and presentation shall be followed in relation to any other funds maintained by or in connection with the Lodge, such as Lodge Benevolent Funds, Dining Funds, Charity Box collections, Social Functions or other moneys receivable from individual members of the Lodge or any of its officers.
- It is desirable but not essential that Benevolent Funds be kept in a separate bank account – preferably a Lodge Chest account with the Grand Charity. Funds held for a Registered Charity must be kept in a separate bank account and administered by trustees in accordance with the Trust Deed and the Charities Acts.
- The Treasurer must be familiar with the by-laws of the Lodge and comply with them.

REGULATIONS

THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE BOOK OF CONSTITUTIONS AND TREASURER'S DUTIES AND LODGE ACCOUNTS

These are set out in Rule 105.

(i) All monies due to, or held for, the Lodge shall be paid or remitted, to the Treasurer direct, who shall without undue delay deposit the same in an account in the name of the Lodge at a bank to be approved by resolution of the Lodge.

The Treasurer shall make such payments as are duly authorised, or have been sanctioned by the Lodge.

All cheques must bear the signature of the Treasurer and (unless the Lodge resolves to the contrary) of at least one other member authorised by the Lodge.

The Treasurer shall regularly enter a complete record of all moneys passing through his hands in the proper books of account, which shall be the property of the Lodge, and which, together with all the Lodge funds and property in his possession, shall be transferred to his successor upon investiture.

He shall prepare a statement of accounts annually, at a date to be determined by the members, showing the exact financial position of the Lodge, which statement shall be verified and audited by two auditors elected annually in accordance with Rule 105 (ii).

RESPONSIBILITY OF THE LODGE

It is the responsibility of the Master and Wardens to ensure that The Lodge complies with these Rules.

TAXATION

Lodges are liable to taxation on the income from investments, bank interest and capital gains and the Treasurer must be sure that his unit has been registered with HM Revenue and Customs. In practice the only income arising is from bank interest from which tax has already been deducted at source.

Tax Districts normally do not require tax returns where the income received is below a threshold which they set by discretion. However, from time to time, the Tax District may require a unit to file a copy of its accounts say every five years.

PROPER BOOKS OF ACCOUNT

These may be in the form of a bound cash book or computer record. (Excel, Sage etc.)

The entries must be in sufficient detail to record and explain the transactions of the Lodge.

A computer record should be backed up by a device such as a memory stick or disk.

STATEMENTS OF ACCOUNT

These may be in the format of Income and Expenditure Account and Balance Sheet or Receipts and Payments Account with bank balances, investments, debtors and creditors listed.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

This must state that the balances have been checked and that the accounts have been duly audited.

PROPERTY, FURNITURE, JEWELS, BOOKS, PAPERS, &c,

These should be recorded in a special register kept for this purpose and checked from time to time by the Worshipful Master, Wardens, or the Audit Committee.

INSURANCE

A suitable insurance policy should be in force.

REGULATIONS CONT:

Copies of the accounts and of the certificate signed by the auditors that all balances have been checked and that the accounts have been duly audited shall be sent to all members of the Lodge together with the summons convening the meeting at which they are to be considered and following the approval and adoption of the audited statement of accounts by the Lodge three copies thereof shall be transmitted to the Provincial or District Grand Secretary or, in the case of London or Lodges Abroad not under Districts, to the Grand Secretary.

The books of account shall be produced for inspection in open Lodge at such meetings, and on any other occasion if required by a resolution of the Lodge. The same procedure of annual accounts, audit and presentation to members or the Lodge shall mutatis mutandis, be followed in relation to any other funds maintained by or in connection with the Lodge (whether by the Treasurer or by a Charity Steward or other Officer) and whether relating to General or Charitable purposes or otherwise.

- (ii) The Lodge shall each year at the Installation Meeting elect two subscribing members of the Lodge (other than the Treasurer and the Secretary) to act as auditors.
- (iii) The audit of the statement of accounts shall be carried out by the auditors in accordance with Instructions given from time to time by the General Board.

PROPERTY OF A PRIVATE LODGE

Rule 148(i / iv / v) provides:-

The property of...... any private Lodge, not vested in special trustees, shall be held by the Master and Wardens unless the by-laws otherwise provide.

Documents or other property in the possession or under the control of a Brother by virtue of his office in a Lodge shall be delivered to his successor in such office, or as the Master may direct. In case of dissolution of the Lodge such documents or other property shall be delivered to such person as the Lodge by resolution or, failing such resolution, as the Grand Master shall direct.

REMITTANCE OF FEES

Rule 100 (i) provides:-

Every Lodge shall keep a register of its members and their Marks, and once in each year, before the 30th September, transmit to the Grand Secretary on the proscribed form details of the subscribing membership of the Lodge and of changes in membership during the preceding twelve months period ending on 31st August. With such return shall be transmitted the Annual Dues paid by the Lodge in respect of every brother who has been a subscribing member of the Lodge during any part of the preceding twelve months period, whether or not such member shall be in arrears.

Rule 101 (i) provides:-

Lodges in Provinces or Districts shall, in addition to the returns to be made to the Grand Secretary, make similar returns to the Provincial or District Grand Secretary and transmit therewith all monies payable to the Provincial or District Grand Lodge.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Rule 90 provides:-

...... the date on which the annual subscription becomes due shall be specified in the by-laws. The by-laws may also provide that the Secretary shall be excused payment of subscription in recognition of his services......

Rule 90 A provides:-

A Lodge shall determine the amount of the annual subscription and of the fees to be paid to the lodge by candidates for advancement, joining or rejoining, by resolution in open lodge from time to time after notice on the summons for any meeting.

PRODUCTION OF RECORDS

Rule 150 provides:-

Any body within the Order may by resolution require its minute books, books of account, or any other documents relating to its property or affairs which are in the custody or control of any of its Officers or members as such, to be produced for its inspection.
